

Apps You Should Be Aware of That Your Student Might Be Using

1. AfterSchool - Advertised as “Funny Anonymous School News For Confessions & Compliments” in the AppleStore, this anonymous app allows sexual and graphic images.
2. Burnbook or Burn Note - These apps allow users to anonymously post pictures and text. It has become a collection of harsh comments and threats from students directed toward their peers.
3. Kik - An instant message service that also allows photo sharing. It is loaded with sexual and pornographic spammers.
4. Omegle - An anonymous chat client where users discuss anything they'd like. Its conversations are filled with lewd language and references to sexual content, drugs and alcohol, and violence.
5. Private Photo (Calculator%) - The app appears to be a simple calculator, but by punching in a code it can unlock a private photo album. It allows private photos and videos to be hidden behind a calculator icon, called “Calculator%”.
6. Snapchat – An app that allows users to send photo and videos that the app promises disappear within seconds.
7. WhatsApp - Similar to Kik. Same purpose and probably more popular.
8. Yik Yak - Similar to Kik, but views are limited to those geographically close to the poster.
